LEADING LADIES

November 19 -
December 19
2010

From the writer of Moon Over Buffalo comes this sidesplitting comedy of mistaken identities as two English Shakespearean actors who are stuck performing on the Moose Lodge Circuit in 1950's Amish Pennsylvania decide to impersonate the long lost English nephews of a local dying heiress. However, they soon discover that the long lost relatives are actually nieces! Donning outfits from their costume trunk, the two arrive at the estate as "Maxine and Stephanie" to collect the inheritance. Romantic entanglements abound when they fall head-over-petticoat in love with the old lady's vivacious niece and her best friend. In a hilarious combination of Billy Wilder's Some Like It Hot meets the Marx Brothers, Ken Ludwig's Leading Ladies will have you laughing long after the curtain falls!

a sure bet!

AMADEUS

Ride the waves of musical intrigue in Peter Shaffer's Tony and Drama Desk Award-winning depiction of the life of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart as seen through the eyes of rival composer Antonio Salieri as he plots to destroy the brash and fiery young genius.

BURIED CHILD

Peer into the life of this gritty American Midwestern family as they dig up a dark, terrible, haunting secret in Sam Shepard's Pulitzer Prize-winning drama.

THE SEAFARER

Reunite with old friends for a Christmas Eve of heavy drinking and friendly cards until a mysterious stranger arrives and raises the stakes forcing everyone to face the demons of their past in Conor McPherson's Tony-nominated dark comedy.

BLACK COFFEE

Join forces with beloved sleuth Hercule Poirot as he unravels the mystery of Agatha Christie's first stage thriller that will keep you guessing till the final moment.

ARSENIC & OLD LACE

Spend an evening as guests of the elderly Brewster sisters and sample some of their homemade Elderberry wine for a deadly night of comic fun in this classic of the American stage.
